1. January 9th – January 13th Parent pick-up and sign for banks from 7:30 a.m. – 8:00 a.m. or 3:00 – 3:30 p.m.
2. Visit MLK's website to find home activities related to financial literacy to do at home with your child.
3. Students are expected to make weekly or monthly contributions to their banks.
4. Together, parents and the student should set a goal on opening or adding to an existing bank account for the student.
5. Parents should plan to be a part of the Lemonade Day Classroom Competition on Monday, April 23rd. You can help by securing sales and inviting co-workers, friends and relatives to stop by your child's classroom to purchase a cup of lemonade. The cost of one cup of lemonade is 25 cents. The classroom with the most lemonade sales will receive a $250 gift certificate to purchase items for their classroom.
6. In accordance with our philosophy of helping students understand giving back to the community, each classroom will choose a non-profit organization to donate/invest their earnings.
7. Financial literacy concepts and activities will be integrated into current themes used for instruction.
8. Presentations by Capital One Bank personnel will be provided for parents.
9. May 2012 – There will be a celebration held in honor of students and parents participating in the program. Parents and students will receive Financial Literacy Certificates and have their pictures displayed on our website.
